Get to Know 4-H- Information Session and Workshops are scheduled

The Schoharie County 4-H Program will be holding an information session for youth and their parents to learn about 4-H clubs and special programs. The information session will be held on Wednesday, November 4 at 7 p.m. at the Sharon Springs Library.

4-H is an educational youth program run by Cornell Cooperative Extension Schoharie County. Youth enrolled in 4-H spend time with adult volunteers learning about topics such as animal science, cooking, engineering, outdoor skills and much more. 4-H is open to all youth ages 5 to 19 regardless of race, religion, or economic status.

The Schoharie County 4-H Program will also be holding two holiday craft workshops for youth ages 7 to 12 on Saturday, November 14, 10:30 a.m. to noon at the Sharon Springs Library and Saturday, November 21, 10:30 a.m. to noon at the Schoharie Library. Participants will make a turkey note holder or figurine. There is no charge for these workshops.

For more information about 4-H or any of these events, please call Cornell Cooperative Extension Schoharie County at (518) 234-4303 or (518) 296-8310. Cornell Cooperative Extension Schoharie County provides equal program and employment opportunities. Accommodations for persons with special needs may be requested by contacting Cornell Cooperative Extension Schoharie County prior to 4-H program.
