Save Energy, Save Dollars

Cornell Cooperative Extension Schoharie County will conduct HeatSmart NY workshops on conserving energy in the home on Saturday, January 9, from 10 to noon and on Tuesday, February 9, from 7 to 9 p.m. at The Extension Center, 173 South Grand Street, Cobleskill. Learn about low-cost and no-cost ways to save energy and reduce energy bills. There will also be hand-outs on programs that can help individuals afford energy-efficiency improvements with subsidies, low-interest loans, or free services to qualifying households. Registered participants will receive a free kit of energy saving items, a $20.00 value. HeatSmart NY workshops are sponsored by the New York State Energy Research and Development Authority (NYSERDA).

Class size is limited to the first 15 registrants. Please register by Thursday, January 7 for the January 9 workshop and by Friday, February 5 for the February 9 workshop. To register call the Extension Office at 518.234.4303 or 518.296.8310.

Cornell Cooperative Extension Schoharie County provides equal program and employment opportunities. Accommodations for persons with special needs may be requested by contacting Cornell Cooperative Extension Schoharie County prior to the workshop.

Cornell Cooperative Extension Schoharie County improves county economic and social well-being by teaching county residents research-based practices in agriculture, personal nutrition, family budgeting and youth character development.
